I, ..... understand that Redlands United Football Academy (RUFA), its staff and coaches, will act professionally at all times. Redlands United Football Academy will aim to provide a fun and learning environment for all participants. Your child's health and safety is paramount to Redlands United Football Academy. However, RUFA will not be held responsible for any injury, accidents or unforeseen circumstances affecting any player taking part in Academy or Camp sessions. Under no circumstances will any Academy player be transported to or from any Academy sessions without the express written permission of the player's parent or guardian. I have advised RUFA of all custody issues relating to my child/children. Permission for photos and filming to be used in promotion is granted.
